

Crumpled Heart

Read the book Chrysanthemum by: Kevin Hankes. Discuss how she felt when friends made fun of her name. Make a large red heart. Pass it around and ask students to say something that would hurt a friends' heart. With each comment, they crumple the heart. Try to smooth out the heart. Children will notice that even when you try to say something nice, the heart stays crumpled.